THE OHIO CONVENTION.

The Republicans Getting Ready for the Fray.

The General Outlook for Blaine and Sherman—Attitude of the Various Delegations—A Proposed Blaine Mass Meeting.

CLEVELAND, April 24.—The Republican State Convention began at 2 P. M. to-day in the Tabernacle, a large building capable of seating 3,500 people. It was handsomely decorated with flags and bunting, and pictures of Garfield and Lincoln were above the rostrum.

The Hamilton County and Cuyahoga County delegations were grouped on opposite sides of the front rows. On the stage were the well known faces of many prominent Ohio Republicans, whose names have been famous for years.

They were looking back at men. There was Butterworth, Judge West, Gen. Robinson, Captain Ogilvie, Chairman Grosvenor, ex-Congressman Townsend, Congressman Moore, and others. Foster was conspicuous by his absence. The band played "Hail, Ohio," and then it was ended, Chairman Crocker of the State Central Committee arose, and rapped for order with a flourish.

He made a few congratulatory remarks, and introduced Chairman C. H. Grosvenor, of Athens. He was loudly cheered and delivered a set speech.

Immediately after the speech the temporary organization was completed by the election of Secretaries. Then the Committee on Resolutions, Permanent Organization, Rules and Order, and the Committee on Nominations, were announced as chosen by the several districts in their convention; also, the names of newly elected members of the State Central Committee. The Committees were instructed to report at 10 A. M. to-morrow.

While the Convention will be permanently organized and the nominations for delegates at large and State officers will be made.

It is just reported that Blaine's name is now ready to grasp at a straw. They will call a mass Blaine meeting to-night, to indicate the sentiment of the people. Sherman's name is now ready to grasp at a straw. They will call a mass Blaine meeting to-night, to indicate the sentiment of the people.

Both the Hamilton County districts will caucus before going to the Convention.

THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.

It was decided after further debate to put the Committee of Arrangements to the heads of the department. Then Mr. Morrill wanted the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution admitted to the floor. It was finally agreed that Professor Baird should have the privilege of the floor. This, however, having been disposed of the Senate, on motion of Mr. Miller (Cal.), who stated that there were important foreign affairs demanding attention, went into executive session.

When the doors were reopened the Senate proceeded to the consideration of unopposed bills on the calendar. The bill to give the act of Congress to the construction of a free bridge by the Mayor and City Council of Nashville, Tenn., over the Cumberland River, was passed.

On motion of Mr. Voorhes, the pension bills on the calendar were taken up and passed. Among them was one granting a pension of fifty dollars per month to the widow of Rear Admiral McDougall.

Mr. Hoar gave notice that after the pleasure of the Senate, he will take up the Morrill bill.

The bill to accept and ratify certain agreements made with the Sioux Indians and to grant right of way through their reservation in Dakota Territory, Central and Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad Companies was passed, and the Senate adjourned.

A MELANCHOLY STORY.

The Sad Fate of a Langtry Cruise Victim.

The Death of Miss Ivy Hughes Under Peculiarly Painful Circumstances—A Beautiful Woman But a Bad Actress.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The funeral services held in the Church of the Annunciation, in Fourteenth street, near Sixth avenue, yesterday morning, and the subsequent burial in Woodlawn Cemetery, of the body of a beautiful girl, only twenty-two years old, were the last sad rites extended to one who fell a victim to the angry craze, the belief that physical beauty merely was a sufficient passport to fame and fortune on the stage.

About four months ago a young lady in elegant attire called on Mr. Augustus Dixon, the manager of Mr. Edwin Booth's company at the Fifth Avenue Theater.

"She was one of the most beautiful women I ever saw in my life," said Mr. Dixon last evening. "She was tall and perfect in form, with oval face, and cheeks soft, velvety and rosy as peaches. She gave me her name as Miss Ivy Hughes, admitting at the same time that he was her maiden name. She said she had received it from her father, who was a lawyer, whose fee was paid by a well-known literary man."

A SAD DOWNFALL.

Pitiful Case Brought Before the New York Courts.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—A middle-aged woman, poorly dressed and dispirited looking, but still showing traces of high breeding and great beauty, sat in the quarter sessions dock yesterday, charged with the larceny of some trifling wearing apparel. Her plain black dress was faded and a bit of frayed lace was drawn around her neck. Her head was covered with an old summer hat of black straw. Her hands, clasped together, rested in her lap, and tears chased one another rapidly down her cheeks. She was indicted under the name of Margaret Miller. She said that the clothes had been given her by a man who had been in prison for some time. She said that she had been in prison for some time. She said that she had been in prison for some time.
